

OUR HISTORY

The University of the Third Age (U3A) is an international movement established in 1973 in Toulouse, France. When U3A reached the United Kingdom, it became the self-help organization it is today

Università delle Tre Età (UNITEVE) was established in the historic center of Venice by Dr. Angelo Sandi on June 30, 1986, on the initiative of the Rotary Club of Venice (RCV) and Inner Wheel.

WHAT WE DO

UNITEVE aims to provide retired community members education and enrichment through in-person and online courses and intramural activities.

WHAT WE OFFER

Members can select from a wide variety of course topics, including Archaeology, Philosophy, Medicine, Art, Astronomy, Music, Design, Computer Science, Theatre, and Food. There are also many less educationally-focused offerings, such as games, fitness, and leisure.

WHAT TO EXPECT

Courses and activities are offered free of charge by one of the 30+ professors that volunteer at the institution. Classes are typically held for one hour per week, following a formal syllabus or drawing on current affairs and student interests.

WHO WE ARE

We are a non-profit, non-political, union, and non-denominational association. We organize our activities according to the principles of democracy and equality of members' rights.
